

I am disturbed to learn that Sinclair Broadcasting plans to air a program of questionable journalistic objectivity and motivation--"Stolen Honor"--days before an important national election.

Sinclair Broadcasting is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If it cannot live up to its democratic responsibilities and airs biased programming in order to influence a presidential election, then I would suggest that its broadcasting license should be revoked. If current regulations do not allow this, then they need to be strengthened.